B. HANSCOM SMITH - ROSEBURY

A candlelight wedding was performed for Jeffrey Smith and Elaine Rosebury on Feb. 23, 1980 at the West Parish Congregational Church in Bethel with the Rev. Thomas L. Caton officiating. The bride was given in marriage by Lewis Smith of Bethel, father of the groom. The best man was Bruce Danforth of West Paris, friend of the groom. The maid of honor was Donna Kennedy, also of West Paris, friend of the bride, and bridesmaids were Linda Stearns of Rumford Corner, Dori Harrington of East Bethel and Annie Morton of Rumford.

MAINE VOTERS TO DECIDE "GAMES OF CHANCE" ISSUE IN TUESDAY BALLOTING

Maine voters will decide a referendum question, "Amend the Laws Relating to Games of Chance," as a special election on Tuesday, March 11. The referendum on this question is to be held in conjunction with the annual municipal election.

The referendum question will read as follows: Shall "AN ACT to Amend the Laws Relating to Games of Chance," which prohibits the licensing of games of chance conducted with gambling machines, become law?

If this act is not approved, then the present law would remain in effect. Under the present law, non-profit organizations may be licensed to conduct games of chance using gambling machines which are activated by some means other than the insertion of a coin.

A "YES" VOTE favors approval of this act. A "NO" VOTE opposes approval of the act.

INFORMATION ON 1980 BETHEL TOWN WARRANT

The following comments on the Bethel Annual Town Meeting Warrant for 1980 were prepared by and published through the courtesy of the Bethel Town Office.

BUDGET ARTICLES 4-21

General Comments: The total of Bethel's 1980 proposed town appropriation is $412,395.60. This reflects an increase of 1.6% or $6,389.60 over the total appropriation of $406,006 in 1979. Proposed appropriations from General Revenue Sharing and Surplus amount to $165,000. This appropriation is $18,932.95 less than in 1979 due to a proposed lesser use of surplus funds and no excess inventory reimbursement funds. The net effect of the budget increase and the lesser amount of other funds is that an additional $25,322.55 will need to be raised through taxation if all proposed budget articles are approved. It should be noted that this net figure is incorrectly stated in the Budget Summary on page 70 of the Town Report as $27,322.55.

The 1980 proposed budget is based on the continued provisions of existing levels of services. No new services or additional full-time personnel are proposed, however, two additional social service agencies have requested funding in 1980.

General Government: The proposed increase of $11,474 in this account is due to increased costs for energy, commodities, legal, and other services, the provision of part-time staff assistance to the Planning Board, and employee salary increases.

Protection: The proposed increase in $9,330 in this account reflects increased costs in the Police Department for fuel and salaries and the purchase of a new police car in late 1980. This increase also reflects the increase in hydrant rental costs due to the Water District rate increase in 1979 and in increased costs of street lighting due to fuel adjustment increases. Offsetting these increases is a $4,700 decrease in the proposed fire department appropriation.

Leisure Services: The increase of $600 in this category is due to the increased request from the Bethel Library Association and a proposed increase in the Recreation account.

Public Works: The decrease of $26,308 in this account results primarily from no request for new equipment and no request for sidewalks. $11,800 in the sidewalk account was carried forward from 1979. The winter roads account reflects a proposed decrease of $5,700 from last year due to the mild winter so far in 1980. The increase in the summer roads account is primarily due to substantial culvert and bridge work and the increase in the Public Works General account results from the proposed use of additional engineering services in 1980. The Garage Maintenance Account increase is due to increases in energy costs.

Unclassified: The $5,612 proposed increase in this category is due to increases in the cost of employee benefits, the cost of the Town's general liability insurance, and Bethel's assessment from the Androscoggin Valley Regional Planning Commission.

Health, Welfare, Sanitation: This category reflects an increase of $5,072, with an increase in the ambulance service account due to the proposed purchase of a new ambulance, an increase in the landfill account due to higher energy costs and salary increases and a proposed decrease in the general assistance account.

Other Articles: The request in Article 11 for $400 for Memorial Day is the same as the request in 1979. This money is used by the continued on Page Five

CROSS COUNTRY SKI RACE AT SUNDAY RIVER MARCH 9

The 8th Annual Sunday River Langlauf Cross Country Citizens Race sponsored by Sunday River Ski Club will be held at Sunday River Ski Touring Center on Sunday, March 9 at 1:30 p.m. Originated in 1973, the event has traditionally been run on the second Sunday in March as a warm weather race sanctioned by Eastern Ski Association and open to all interested skiers.

The race begins with an exciting mass start which is always a great crowd pleaser. Youngsters and oldsters alike race around the 3, 5, and 10 kilometer circuits and finish times are used to calculate position in one of fourteen different age and sex classifications. Winners in each class receive award certificates and merchandise prizes.

Racers and spectators are most welcome at the event. Due to this season's snow conditions this will be one of a very few Eastern sanctioned citizen races held in New England this year. Registration for the race is $1 for the 3k, $3 for the 5k, and $4 for the 10k. Racers will be registered up until start time. For more information call the Sunday River Ski Touring Center at 824-2410.

SENIOR CITIZENS TO OBSERVE ST. PATRICK'S DAY AT MARCH 12 MEETING

Bethel Senior Citizens, meeting Wednesday, March 12, at the IOOF Hall, will be celebrating St. Patrick's Day. An auction will be a part of the afternoon program. Members of the committee include Dorothy Onofrio, Sarah Stevens, Alice McAllister, and Elizabeth Lord. The birthday cake will be furnished by Eva Lane, Elsie Inman, Alice Kimball, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waterhouse.

SLIDE-LECTURES, BETHEL SURVEY ON HISTORIC RESOURCE SCHEDULE

Continuing with the process of informing groups throughout Oxford County about the subject matter and methods of the Oxford County Historic Resource Survey, Project Director George Allen will give slide-talks to the Waterford Historical Society on March 6, to the Hiram Historical Society on March 8, to the Maine History Course of the Oxford Hills Adult Education Program on March 10, and to the Dixfield Historical Society on Thursday, March 13.

The slide-lecture attempts to give some idea of the variety and types of structures that have been built in the county's towns through the years. "Federal farmhouses with delicately-carved doorways and cornices, capes in all sizes and with many modifications, temple-like Greek Revival homes with columned porches are all a part of the country's heritage," says Allen, "but so also are the decorative brackets of the Italianate style, the turreted and paneled forms of the Queen Anne style, and the patterned shingles used from the late Nineteenth century until the present day." Allen includes examples of each in his presentation, and attempts to interest people from the groups he addresses to assist with the documentation of the county's buildings that will be the work of the survey.

The Bethel Historical Society's Research and Education Committee met last week to look at Allen's draft survey form, to be used in recording the buildings of the town. To accomplish the survey, Bethel's land area will be divided into perhaps 50 districts or neighborhoods and volunteer surveyors will be needed first to attend a workshop on the identification of building features and building styles, then to fill out forms for from 10 to 20 structures in the town.

Allen and Bethel Historical Director Stanley Howe have been testing the form. They find it takes from 15 minutes to a half hour to gather the bulk of the information requested for each structure.

For citizens with an interest in the way their towns have grown, and in the buildings among which they live their lives, the survey could be an eye opener. One of the comments Allen receives with increasing frequency, when he tours the towns with members of local groups is "You know, I've passed by that building so often, but I've never really looked at it until now."

People are curious, too, Allen says. "Political Advertisement"

JUNIOR NATIONAL SKI CHAMPIONSHIPS MARCH 10-15 AT SUNDAY RIVER SKI AREA

Bethel will welcome the country's best 16 and 17 year old alpine skiers next week as they arrive to compete in the Junior National I Championships at the Sunday River Ski Area. Approximately 160 competitors are expected.

It is especially pleasing to local ski enthusiasts who over the years have seen Gould Academy in Bethel send competitors in both nordic and alpine categories to these national contests that Sunday River was selected for this year's alpine races.

Spectators are not only welcome but are urged to come if they want to see future Olympic skiers perform. Sunday River's general manager, Les Otten, says that spectators will be able to pick good vantage points for the races. Skiers can reach the upper positions on the certified FIS trails by using the regular lifts while non-skiers can hike up along lower levels to find good positions. Also a specially constructed training center will be ready to coordinate events and arrivals.

Besides watching the main racing activities, other attractions include cross country skiing, sightseeing—a century old covered bridge, "Artists' Bridge" is only two miles away and in Bethel the Moses Mason Museum houses a fully restored 19th Century home—and Bethel's shopkeepers welcome browsers.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO MEET THIS EVENING (THURSDAY)

The monthly meeting of the Bethel Historical Society will be held this Thursday evening at 7:30 in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. Special feature of the program will be a quiz contest entitled "So You Think You Know Bethel." Everyone is welcome to attend. Refreshments will follow the program.

Finance Institutions Support Income Tax Exemption

A bill that would exempt from state income tax some of the interest paid by commercial banks, savings banks, credit unions and savings and loan associations in Maine has been filed.

The exemption would apply to the first $200 of interest received by a single taxpayer, the first $300 for single heads of households and $400 for married couples filing jointly and widows and widowers.

A campaign in support of the legislation is under way by the 29 savings banks in Maine. The campaign includes bumper stickers with the slogan—"Augusta—Hands off my Savings!" Also included is extensive newspaper advertising with clippings which may be mailed to Augusta urging legislators to support the bill. These efforts are to continue for three weeks. The banks are supporting the L.D. because they believe it may be an incentive needed to get people to keep funds in savings. Savings are at an all-time low in this country, the lowest in the free world.

From the banks' point of view, making the 5.5% interest income tax-exempt is the same as raising the interest to a 5.79% taxable yield—except that the exemption doesn't cost the bank anything.

A tax loss estimated at $1.5 million to $3 million to the state of Maine is of concern to the legislature as it grapples with many fiscal deficits in the budget.

Opponents view the measure as clearly for the benefit of bankers and discriminates against other forms of savings. Also, they note that since low-income people tend to save little from their incomes, any scheme designed to stimulate investment will necessarily confer greater benefits on those most able to save and invest—typically, higher-income people.

It has been suggested that the measure be amended to restrict the exemption to the elderly. Some 88% of these people, who often depend on low and fixed incomes, report interest on their tax forms, compared with less than half the below 65 population.

Conversely, the proponents note the United States is one of the few industrialized countries that taxes savings interest as income and express the need for more incentive in these inflationary times to save and accumulate.

However, even though many support the basic concept, there appears to be grave concern for the passage of this measure because of the loss of revenue to the general fund.

School Cost-Sharing Agreements
Across the state there are school districts—both SADs and CSDs—that are locked into inequitable agreements for the sharing of education costs. And there is no apparent way out under present law. The situation has developed (The Deer Isle-Stonington Community School District is one example) because the conditions which form the basis for the agreements—numbers of pupils and state valuations—have changed dramatically in one or more towns since the agreements were negotiated.

The law now permits the renegotiation of cost-sharing agreements in districts, but the reality is that in situations where one town is adversely affected while one or more others benefit financially from the existing arrangement, there is little hope for change.

A bill has been submitted this session (LD 1945) which would make the voluntary renegotiation of cost sharing agreements a little easier in some situations. It provides that, at any meeting convened to consider the necessity for a change in the method of sharing costs, each municipality

Sunday River

Mrs. R. M. Fleet, Corres.
Sent in by Mrs. Eva Yates:

March 3—a most lovely winter morning, 5 below at my house. And spring is only three weeks away. What became of January and February? The most of the news of the day is who is running and who is going to be the next president. Some want Carter and some do not. I'd like to have one that was interested in the American people and not those on the other side of the ocean and that cared for and had feelings for the poorer class of people instead of the big money concerns.

Bear River Grange will not be having a meeting March 8. There will be a meeting March 22. That will be an afternoon meeting preceded by a pot luck dinner.

Russell and Eva Yates spent Sunday P. M. with the Bernard Hutchins in East Andover.

A phone call from Peggy Blake Sunday told of a tornado at Pompano Beach on Saturday. Not much damage where she is but quite a lot in other places. One lady was killed but not right there.

Not much news but that Sunday River has been a busy street the past two weeks. Ski activities have been numerous. Some accidents but what this writer doesn't know.

Russell and Eva were in Oxford and West Paris both for business and pleasure Feb. 25.

It's cold cold cold and a lot of people are having a shortage of water. Can't afford to waste it any more than we can gas.

involved would be represented by two residents chosen by the municipal officers and one resident chosen by the school board. Further, any proposed change in the cost-sharing arrangement would have to be approved by a majority, rather than by two-thirds, of the committee before it is submitted for a majority vote of the district. Most people agree with the changes proposed in LD 1945, but some do not believe the bill goes far enough. While present law requires that the meeting mentioned above be held if it is requested by 10% of the voters who participated in the last gubernatorial election, it does not require that the cost-sharing arrangement actually be changed to become more equitable even if such a meeting is held. And unless two-thirds of the committee were to agree to a change, the existing arrangement could be continued even if it is clearly unfair to a town which finds itself in a minority situation.

An ad hoc committee has been established by the Department of Education to study public school administrative units. This committee will be conducting hearings and receiving input on a state-wide basis. Issues related to cost sharing will be submitted to this committee for study. New legislation will undoubtedly arise during the next legislative session that will remove many remaining inequities.

 Household Poisons - The victims of household poisoning are most often children. Childproof your home by these methods:

 children.

2. Keep medicines out of reach,
 preferably in a locked cabinet.
 Never refer to medication as candy.

 tine, paint, varnish, pesticides, dyes, fuels, waxes and polishes are dangerous. Never store these items in containers other than the original.

4. Keep the numbers of the Maine Poison Control Center (1-gency Ambulance Service (824-

The Gideons are made up of devoted Christian men who give of their time and finances to place Bibles in many places such as: motels, hospitals, various branches of the armed services, etc. These Bibles have often met the needs of some weary and discouraged traveler far from home.

Gary Page, formerly of Bethel, will be the speaker for the Gideons on Sunday morning. A love offering will be received to help the Gideons in their work. The public is cordially invited to attend.

MRS. FARRAR SPEAKS TO MRS. YATES' ENGLISH CLASS AT MIDDLE SCHOOL

On March 3, Sue Farrar, author of "Samantha on Stage", spoke to one of Linda Yates' English classes at the Telstar Middle School. Before her visit, Mrs. Yates introduced the class to a bit of Russian culture, and read Mrs. Farrar's book.

In English class throughout the year, the students have done many creative writing assignments. Through listening to Mrs. Farrar's presentation, the students got an idea of the amount of work that goes into writing a book. They saw "Samantha on Stage" from start to finish. Mrs. Farrar also mentioned the various other people she came in contact with during her book's preparation. This helped to make the students aware of different careers associated with being an author.

Jay Davis and Eva Caton look on as Mrs. Yates greets Mrs. Farrar at Mrs. Yates' English class. The flowers were presented to Mrs. Yates stems up, a Russian custom.

BETHEL SCORES HIGHEST IN WASTE MANAGEMENT CONTROL PROGRAM

For the first time since it was given authority in 1973 to regulate solid waste disposal facilities the Maine Department of Environmental Protection has published an enforcement priority list for Maine's more than 300 identified waste disposal sites.

The priority list will enable the Enforcement Division to concentrate its activities on facilities where the need is greatest. John Baste, division director said.

Until now the DEP's limited enforcement capability has been substantially confined to response to complaints and routine inspections Baste said.

A total of 313 facilities were graded by solid waste management professionals of the Department's Bureau of Land Quality Control on a list of criteria developed in an extensive study of the problem. The criteria were assigned positive values for good management practices and negative values where management practices involved risks to public health. The grading scale ranges from a plus 70 score for the best operated facility to a possible minus 195 for the poor est.

The Town of Bethel scored the highest with a plus 60 rating. Presque Isle was rated the worst with a minus 70.

Other municipalities with high scores on the positive side included Castine, Isleboro, Milford, Readfield, Solon and Warren, all scoring a +55; Waldoboro and Edmunds, +50; and Barry (Pitts- ton), Charleston, Cooper, Council of Governments (Greater Portland) Fort Fairfield (Tri-Communi- ty), Glenburn, Kennebunk, New- castle, Orono, Vienna and Vinal- haven, all with +45's.

Near the lower end of the table with Presque Isle were Cori- na and Pittsfield, -65; Biddeford and Paris, -45; and Bristol, Lu- bee, Madawaska, Rockland, Sietson, Winthrop and Woodstock, all with -40's. Of the 313 listed facilities, 144 had grades of zero or lower and 169 had positive scores from zero to a +60.

Other towns in this area rated as follows: Andover, +35; Gilead and Upton, +30; West Paris, +5; Greenwood, -5.

The rating criteria assessed penalties ranged from a minus 100 for facilities that posed an immediate threat to a -20 for viola- tions of Maine's 300-foot law (dis- tance from the nearest body of water), and open burning.

Open burning of dumps is pro- hibited entirely by federal law and is prohibited by Maine law for fa- cilities serving more than 1,000 persons.

No Maine dumps were found to pose an immediate life threat. Twelve municipalities, however, Auburn, Sabattus, Presque Isle, Houlton, Southwest Harbor, Nor- way, Paris, Pittsfield, Belfast, Searsport and Biddeford were found to have dumps posing a threat to public water supplies (-50 points), and 13 municipali- ties were found to be operating disposal facilities threatening pri- vate water supplies (-25 points).

These were Auburn, Lisbon, Sa- battus, Winthrop, Savage dump in Winthrop, Brewer, Corinna, Old Town, Monroe, Biddeford, Water- born and York.

Ninety-three municipalities were found to be still open burning dur- ing 1979, but many of those were operating under variances, the last of which expired as of Jan. 1, this year.

The present priority list was based on 1979 field inspections and file records in the DEP. The list will be updated again this year and periodically from now on, Baste said.

TELSTAR LIBRARY RECEIVES GIFTS

Each year the Telstar Library is fortunate to receive gifts of books and magazines from various citizens and organizations who are friends of the school. Mrs. Madeleine Gibbs, Librarian, would like to take this opportunity to express thanks and appreciation of the fac- ulty, staff and students to those who have donated to the Library this year: Rodney Abbott, Bethel Emergency Ambulance & Rescue Service, Bethel P. T. F., Lynn Bristol, Mrs. Seymour Butters, Crescent Park School, Amy Davis, Dr. Wayne Gersen, Grolier Cor- poration, H.D.D. - Education & Training Corporation, Dr. Stanley Howe, William Morton, Sen. Ed- mund Muskie, Charles Ramsey, Lucie Smith, Louis Sprague, Mrs. Jo-Ann Thurston, Edwidge Yates, and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Cole.

In addition, Mrs. Gibbs would like to make special mention of the gift of $1,000 from the Middle School Student Council. This gen- erous donation enabled the Lib- rary to obtain a new set of ency- clopedias plus many other selec- tions. All at Telstar are most ap- preciative of the general consid- eration of the Middle School Stu- dent Council and their advisor, Peter Brown.

FIVE MORE THIRD GRADERS AT C.P.S. ARE MATH WINNERS
Five more third grade students at Crescent Park School made the team in their math contest over the basic addition and sub- traction facts contest. To make the team one must answer 250 exam- ples correctly out of a possible 300.

Winners this month were Dawn Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills with a total of 252 points; Penny Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Brown, with 264 points; Alison Davis, daugh- ter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Davis, with 267 points; Donald Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith, with 273 points; Karin Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson, with a total of 291 points.

Their teacher, Shirley Merrill, is very proud of these winners and knows there will be more win- ners on the team next month.

Letters to the Editor

March 3, 1980

To the Editor:

Thank you for permitting me to write a few lines in regard to my bid for re-election to the Board of Selectmen/Assessor for the town of Bethel on March 11. I am seek- ing re-election because I feel that Bethel is facing a number of im- portant issues in the next few years including the upgrading of the waste water treatment system, the question of municipal facilities, the possible improvement of the airport, the implementation of the recommendations of the compre- hensive plan and the request for increased services among others. I have attempted to play a con- structive role in improving the functions of town government the past five years as a member of these two boards and feel my ex- perience may be useful as Bethel faces the challenges of the 1980's. I have tried to listen to the views of the community and represent them in the decision-making pro- cess, to learn as much about is- sues from a variety of sources, as possible and to speak out or vote my conscience when I felt I was right even if it was a minority position.

I am grateful to the voters of Bethel for granting me the oppor- tunity of service to the town. It has been a thoroughly educational ex- perience and I hope I have had some impact on holding the line on spending and improving the ef- ficiency of town government.

I hope readers who are eligible to vote on Tuesday will give me every consideration.

Sincerely,
Stanley R. Howe

To the Editor:

I would like to remind the peo- ple of Bethel that I am a candi- date for selectman-assessor in the March 11th voting.

Although not a native of Maine, I have well established roots in the State. I graduated from Kents Hill School in 1965 and attended Nason College for two years be- fore serving three and a half years in the U. S. Air Force stationed in Taiwan and Italy.

I completed my education at the University of Denver in Colorado, majoring in Physical Education.

Before coming to Bethel, I was employed in Concord, N. H. I am now affiliated with Dana C. Doug- lass, Jr., in this capacity. I am married to the former Barbara Douglas and we, with our daugh- ter, Brooke, live on Broad Street. My platform is very clear. I am concerned with the problems con- fronting the citizens of Bethel due to the increased costs of living brought on by so many inflatio- nary measures. I am particularly concerned with tax increases which hamper those elderly people liv- ing on a fixed income. I would also like to see the expansion of more recreational activities for our younger children. It is evident that more cooperation and better communication is needed between our School Board and our Town Officials. These issues, among many others, must be carefully weighed by those persons entrusted with the finances of the Town.

I am anxious to serve you in the capacity of selectman-assessor and am fully aware of the time and energy necessary to do the job and do it well. May I have your support? Thank you.

Peter Weeks

March 3, 1980

To the Editor:
Nine years ago when town meet- ing time rolled around, there was very little interest being shown in a vacancy on the board of select- men. A few days prior to town meeting I decided to run for the office as a write-in candidate. I have enjoyed my terms served and found the job to be a challenge as well as hard work.

It is good this year to see people interested in running for this office. We must have a person who will be looking for every possible chance to hold the line on taxes and also offer the needed services in the area. I am pleased to have Peter Weeks as a candidate.

Peter's background in land sur- veying will be beneficial in the assessing area. I feel he will be a congenial addition to the board. I strongly urge the voters of Bethel to support Peter in the March 11 election.

That's when we have a real rip- snorting celebration—it's called Mollycoddle Day. And it's on your Common. You remember that old red skinned busybody who used to hang around your grist mill with her sack of corn, don't you Eleaz? She was a kindly old soul—ha, but she knew what kind of fun was stoppered up inside a rum jug too; didn't she? Well, we have a grand time remembering that old gal. But we remember you, too.

For 84 years now there has been a fountain in the middle of your Common which of late has come to reflect your qualities of thrift, industry and foresight. The flaked paint reflects your thrift in not throwing good money away on such a fool thing as a fountain. The cracked and decaying concrete is like your scratched skin and torn clothes after days of trudging the brush and the forest when you surveyed our town. No water arch- es from the fountain now, remis- iscent of how dry you must have felt after a long day at your mill grinding grain, amid the dust and heat of autumn, for your neigh- bors. And your foresight, you knew for sure that Bethel was going somewhere. Well, our fountain re- flects your foresight, too. Your trustees, our town fathers, are look- ing ahead just like you did. I think that they've calculated that if not- ing at all is done at our fountain our tribute to your memory, it can service as is until Bethel's bi- centennial celebration in 1996.

I'm sure you're still a very busy person, Eleaz, but if you can spare the time on March 12 why don't you look in on us gathered to- our town meeting.

Yours truly,

Article 12 requests $50,000 for the purchase of a new fire truck. WCB requested $100,000 for the purchase of a new fire truck. WCB requested $100,000 for the purchase of a new fire truck. WCB requested $100,000 for the purchase of a new fire truck.

Article 13 asks the voters to appropriate $300 for the Snow- mobile Registrations refund for the Bethel Snowmobile Re- gation Fund. This money in fund is used primarily to pur- chase for the maintenance of bridges on snowmobile trails. A- ies for this purpose were ap- propriated in 1977 and at the end of 1979, the account had a balance of $404.36.

Article 14 asks the Town to appropriate $1,100 for Androscog- g Home Health Services. This request reflects a $222 increase of what the Town appropriated in 1979.

Article 15 asks the Town to appropriate $1,980 for the West- ern Old Citizens Council. This request is the same as last year.

Article 16 asks the Town to appropriate $954.60 for Oxford County Community Services. This request includes an increase of $62.60 over last year's appropria- tion of $892.

In Article 17, Oxford County Community Services is request- ing $960 for assistance in operat- ing the West Bethel Children's Center, the same as was appropriate in 1979.

Article 18 asks the Town to ap- propriate $61 for Tri County Fam- ily Day Care. This request reflects a decrease of $170 due to the fact that less children were served in 1979.

Article 19 asks the Town to ap- propriate $2,220 for Tri County Mental Health. Although the Town appropriated this same amount last year, this money was not spent as the County funded the agency in 1979. The county will not provide funding in 1980.

Articles 20 and 21 reflect new requests for funding. Western Maine Transportation requests $705 and Tri County Family Plan- ning requests $240. Both of these agencies received funding from the County in 1979 but will not receive County financial assistance in 1980.

Citizens who have detailed ques- tions regarding the budget or the programs of social service agen- cies, are urged to come into the Town Office for further informa- tion.

WARRANT ARTICLES 27-31

During the late sixties, the Town of Bethel started the planning pro- cess to upgrade the quality of wa- ter being discharged into the Androscoggin River from the Town's sewer system. This whole process was undertaken in response to federal and state water quality re- quirements.

This initial planning process, was followed by the design and con- struction in 1973 of the Town's Sewage Treatment Plant. At the time when the plant was con- structed, it was designed to handle a maximum daily flow of approxi- mately 300,000 gallons. This de- sign was based on information avail- able at that time about the quan- tities of waste water flowing through the sewer system. The initial con- struction provided for collector sewers and pumping stations to bring sewage from the several river outfalls into the treatment plant and then through one single outfall to the river.

As a result of all waste water going through the plant, it soon became evident that during the spring months and at periods of heavy rainfall, the amount of wa- ter greatly exceeded the amounts originally planned. Flows cur- rently exceed 500,000 gallons per day (the largest amount measur- able at the plant) at many times during the year. These excess flows make it impossible for the plant to operate properly and thus the discharge into the river does not meet required standards.

To go back, how does the plant operate and what does the plant do to the sewage? The process which the incoming sewage undergoes at the plant is rather complex, but easily explained. Within the waste water received at the plant are several millions bacteria. This bac- teria, like any other life form, needs food and oxygen to survive. The waste in the water is their food. The principal operation at the plant is to inject oxygen into the wastewater in order to keep the bacteria alive so that they can reduce the waste simply by in- gesting it themselves. The result- ing waste produced by the bacteria is then separated from the water which carries it. This water is then chlorinated to kill any linger- ing bacteria and discharged into the Androscoggin. The remaining waste product, or sludge, is re- moved and can be disposed of through land application as fer- tilizer.

This treatment process, to work properly, must utilize fairly stable

WARRANT ARTICLES 27-31

During the late sixties, the Town of Bethel started the planning process to upgrade the quality of water being discharged into the Androscoggin River from the Town's sewer system. This whole process was undertaken in response to federal and state water quality requirements.

This initial planning process, was followed by the design and construction in 1973 of the Town's Sewage Treatment Plant. At the time when the plant was constructed, it was designed to handle a maximum daily flow of approximately 300,000 gallons. This design was based on information available at that time about the quantities of waste water flowing through the sewer system. The initial construction provided for collector sewers and pumping stations to bring sewage from the several river outfalls into the treatment plant and then through one single outfall to the river.

As a result of all waste water going through the plant, it soon became evident that during the spring months and at periods of heavy rainfall, the amount of water greatly exceeded the amounts originally anticipated. Flows currently exceed 500,000 gallons per day (the largest amount measurable at the plant) at many times during the year. These excess flows make it impossible for the plant to operate properly and thus the discharge into the river does not meet required standards.

To go back, how does the plant operate and what does the plant do to the sewage? The process which the incoming sewage undergoes at the plant is rather complex, but easily explained. Within the waste water received at the plant are several millions bacteria. This bacteria, like any other life form, needs food and oxygen to survive. The waste in the water is their food. The principal operation at the plant is to inject oxygen into the wastewater in order to keep the bacteria alive so that they can reduce the waste simply by ingesting it themselves. The resulting waste produced by the bacteria is then separated from the water which carries it. This water is then chlorinated to kill any lingering bacteria and discharged into the Androscoggin. The remaining waste product, or sludge, is removed and can be disposed of through land application as fertilizer.

This treatment process, to work properly, must utilize fairly stable quantities of water. When it rains heavily or during periods of spring runoff, substantial amounts of additional water are getting into the sewer system and a flow is produced at the plant which destroys the treatment process.

Why wasn't this problem with excessive flows taken care of when the plant was built in 1973? The answer is quite simple, the federal and state governments wouldn't participate in the cost of dealing with these problems and Bethel couldn't afford to do it alone. These other levels of government had limited funds available at that time and were more interested in getting plans built and in treating sewage that they were in assisting in upgrading sewer lines. Today, as many plants are facing similar problems, the federal and state governments are assisting in the cost of studying these infiltration/inflow problems and in funding rehabilitation projects where it is found cost effective to do it. In some instances it is found to cost less to upgrade plants to handle these large flows, in some instances it costs less to upgrade lines, and in some instances a combination of these solutions is used.

Because of this major problem, the Selectmen in 1977 selected the engineering firm of Dubois and King of Randolph, Vt., to work with the Town in developing alternatives to alleviate this problem and other more minor operating problems at the treatment plant itself. This firm had designed and built many plants similar to Bethel's in small towns in Vermont. Particularly wanted was a firm that specialized in working with small towns of Bethel's size.

In 1978 the Town authorized the Selectmen to proceed with Step I planning for upgrading the sewer collection and treatment system. This study included facilities planning, a sewer system evaluation study and a sludge disposal site study. The total cost of Step I planning was $59,800 with the federal government paying $42,450, the state $8,490, and the town $8,860. Of the Town's share, $3,200 was for the preparation of the Step I grant application and $5,660 was for Bethel's share of the study costs. All Step I planning has been completed except the selecting of a sludge disposal site. It is proposed that the sludge disposal site study be completed as a part of Step II design work as the evaluating of alternative sites to the West Bethel site can best be done during the summer months. To date excess funds from the 1973 Sewer Construction Bonds have been used to fund the local share of this work per town meeting authorization in 1979. The remaining balance of these funds is about $2,000.

The Step I Planning Report has indicated that improvements are needed for both the sewer collection system and treatment facility. Given past experience with the original construction of the treatment plant, it is proposed that all work on the collection system be completed and the resulting system flows evaluated before any design or construction work is started on the treatment plant.

In Articles 27-31, the Selectmen are recommending that the Town be financed through FHA. Application for these funds is made at this time as it often takes two-three years before the loan and grant can be funded by FHA as they commit funds in advance of projects actually being constructed.

As the costs of operating a sewer collection and treatment system are substantial, particularly for a small town like Bethel with a limited number of users, long-range methods to keep operating costs at a minimum are sought.

Specifically, Article 27 asks the voters to ratify the action of the Board of Selectmen in applying for Federal and State Funds for the Step II Design phase and Article 28 would authorize the Selectmen to accept these funds.

Article 29 asks the voters to approve the use of $1,500 of the excess 1973 Sewer Construction Bond funds to pay the cost of the Step II Design grant application. This would use nearly all of the excess 1973 Sewer Construction Bond funds.

Article 30 asks the voters to authorize the Selectmen to borrow an amount not exceeding $15,000 to be used as the local share of the Step II Design Phase. It is proposed that if and when construction improvements are authorized, this money would be included as part of bonds for the entire project.

Article 31 asks the voters to ratify the action of the Selectmen in applying for FHA grant and loan funds to be used as the Town's share of the cost of design and construction of proposed improvements. The bonds for the total project cost are proposed to be financed through FHA. Application for these funds is made at this time as it often takes two-three years before the loan and grant can be funded by FHA as they commit funds in advance of projects actually being constructed.

ARTICLE 35

During the past two years many residents have expressed concern to the Selectmen and the Law Enforcement and Community Safety Committee that a "Bottle Club" might be established and the Town of Bethel would not have a local ordinance to regulate such a club. This concern was expressed primarily because the State does not regulate "Bottle Clubs" in the same manner that it regulates establishments that sell liquor. The only state regulation, and that was adopted this past January, is to control the hours of operation of "Bottle Clubs" between 1 a. m. and 6 a. m. Another factor in this public concern was that a "Bottle Club" would not have to obtain an entertainment permit as required only for establishments which sell liquor on the premises.

As a result of this public concern, the Law Enforcement and Community Safety Committee put together ideas of what should be included in the ordinance and the proposed ordinance was subsequently prepared by the Town's legal counsel Jeff Hole.

The intent of the ordinance is to provide safeguards to residents of areas where a "Bottle Club" might be established and to also provide the Town with a means to regulate such establishments. (See Page 8).

"Moan, wind of March; bring snow, bring rain, bring drizzle, sleet, then snow again.
No matter how you caterwaul, You can't discourage us at all. Howl, wind of March; lament and wail.
Your vagaries cannot prevail, Our hearts forgive you every-thing.
For you blow winter into spring!"

Otta Louise Chase
So here comes March. The most important thing about it is the sunlight, a little over 11 hours between sunrise and sunset.

From a rise across the pond where I stopped this week to look over the stretch of snow, a diffused haze lay in the stillness near the mountains. From valley's end to valleys end stretched the whiteness. A gracious sun smiled down in a flawless sky.

I decided to turn right and go down into "Owl Valley."

I came to a ledge from which water was tinkling as the sun hit directly upon it and it spilled its way down icicles. Snow water, I could almost hear it singing and talking. Back in the woods the stillness was well, still stillness where I stood here, in the forest, lost in myself.

When I come here I always hope to see the owl, that so many nights I hear in the darkness. I presume it is the Screech Owl. It makes a tremulous wailing, descending at the end also other low notes. As I listened this week one night about two o'clock, it sighed from near by "Oh-o-o-o, that I had never been bor-or-or-or-orn!"

In restless despair it circled to see the owl, that so many nights I hear in the darkness. I presume it is the Screech Owl. It makes a tremulous wailing, descending at the end also other low notes. As I listened this week one night about two o'clock, it sighed from near by "Oh-o-o-o, that I had never been bor-or-or-or-orn!"

It snatched a perch. Then came an echo on the further side of the pond "That I never had been bor-or-or-or-or-orn!" and "bor-or-or-or-orn!" I heard faintly from Owl Valley. They usually give me a sense of vastness and mystery, as each sends up its ghost-like over the starlight to float out over the trees into the blue night. It has been many years since I have seen one around here. The last one was in our garage about 18 years ago and I got its picture.

Going into the valley I saw many rabbit trails. They led side-wise in all ways narrowing down to one best path then split and faded away to nowhere.

I kept right to the Sanborn River then followed it to the mouth.

A baby wind came to meet me there, romping content as any child with toys.

All along the way the snow gossamer sparkled or were they stars caught here in a snowy net and too small to find their way back home?

Nearing home I heard a little "phoebe" sing. But looking up into a birch tree some tiny black-capped black-bibbed rascals flitted

BETHEL TOWN FOREST DEDICATED AS TREE FARM

On Tuesday, Feb. 19, forest lands of the Town of Bethel at the former Town Farm property were formally dedicated as Maine Tree Farm #1489. Abbott Ladd, Supervisor of Boise Cascade's Tree Farm Family Program, presented the award to Bethel's Board of Selectmen and Town Manager.

This area, dedicated as the Bethel Town Forest, contains approximately 136 acres of woodland on both sides of U. S. Route 2. The Town of Bethel owns a total of 165 acres at the site with the remaining 29 acres being open space or land used for landfill purposes.

As a result of the initial interest and efforts of Elwyn Dickey, Bethel Town Manager from January of 1967 until his death in September of 1975, the Board of Selectmen had a forest management plan developed for the lot in 1976. Under the guidance of this forest management plan, the Town has undertaken several harvest and improvement cuttings which have yielded saw logs, boltwood, and pulpwood and a periodic income to the town.

Boise Cascade assistance in managing the Town Forest including the marking of timber to be cut and the supervision of harvesting is at no cost to the Town. In fact the proper management of this municipal asset allows the Town to derive income from the sale of timber and thus help lower the burden on the property taxpayer. Through Town Meeting in 1978, voters authorized the Selectmen to apply funds derived from timber sales toward the cost of operating the landfill. This income amounted to $5,041.37 in 1978 and $5,580.12 in 1979.

A Tree Farm is an area of forest land dedicated by its owner to the growing and harvesting of repeated forest crops. The American Tree Farm System is a nationwide program sponsored by the nation's wood using industries through the American Forest Institute. Its purpose is to encourage forest landowners to protect and manage their forest resources for the production of repeated crops of forest products along with all the other benefits of improved wildlife habitat, watershed protection, and an opportunity for outdoor recreation. The Board of Selectmen feel that it is a key responsibility of municipalities like Bethel to properly manage public woodlands to encourage others to do likewise.

— Mrs. Jo Sanderson, Cor. —

Isn't TV wonderful? You can sit at home and enjoy the Olympics and see them better than you could at Lake Placid. We did, and they were so lovely, and I am so proud of all our young people that did so well in the races and other competition and all the medals our young people won. Aren't you proud of them, too?

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kneeland of Sweden Hills and friends rode in over Blackguard and the trail to Jo Sanderson's for a visit. They had six snow machines altogether. They said Jo's trail was the best groomed of any they had ridden on this year.

Speaking of snowmobilers, the Knight Riders Club just won a brand new one for having the most new members join the M. S. A. this year.

Saturday was Town meeting and I hope everyone is happy with the outcome of the voting.

Northwest Bethel

— Clarice Gibson, Corres. —

March came in like a lion a now if the old saying is right March should go out like a lamb. Friday night was cold. In fact someone who keeps daily reading said that Saturday morning it was 18° below. We had only one other reading colder and that was 21° below. Also March came in on full moon and the nights have been beautiful to look out onto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Gilbert and baby, Justin, from Lewiston, were week end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gilbert.

Tuesday, the 26th, after Bible Study at Elaine Packard's; a group of us went to the Spa for dinner.

We are thinking of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason III this week after the death of Kathie's father, Leroy Morgan of Greenwood.

Ida Chapman talked to her daughter, Betsy Wise, in Lexington, S. C., last week. Another daughter, Kathy Chapman, was visiting Betsy that week end. Betsy had been out working in her flower garden and said that her spring flowers were all coming up. Ida was wondering how much damage the snows of the week end did or if they hit there.

Vince Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chapman, with Jimmy Orino, and Frank Heath, were first place winners of a three-man relay cross-country ski race at Bethel Inn Sunday. These three boys were 11 and all the others in the race were men.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS — On Sunday, March 2, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chase, above, of Locke Mills, were guests of honor at a reception in the Greenwood Town Hall in Locke Mills. L. L. BEAN CO. PRESIDENT COMPLETES WINTER OUTWARD BOUND COURSE

On Sunday, Leon Gorman, President of L. L. Bean, the Freeport outdoor sporting goods firm, departed Bethel, after completing a winter course of the Outward Bound program. The course is laid in the rugged Mahoosuc Mountains, north of Bethel; the Sunday River Inn is the course Departure point.

Lack of snow has focused more attention on winter recreational possibilities in the Grafton Notch area which divides the Mahoosuc. For the last five years, the Hurricane Island Outward Bound School has based its winter program of snow hiking, skiing, rock scaling, navigation and cold weather camping in this mountainous terrain. The winter program is directed by Jeff Parsons from his headquarters in Bethel. However, unlike previous years, others in search of snow for cross country skiing and winter hiking have made their way into the area of this former lumbering community, now a state park, which has had snow cover when other areas were bare.

As a historical footnote, Leon L. Bean who founded the store in Freeport was born in Bethel and nearly a century ago learned the pleasure of hunting, fishing and camping opportunities which he found in the area around Bethel including some of the same terrain covered by Gorman last week.
